Here is the email sent on Sept. 13th. the balance due is still the same ($1,547,495.00) except for the additional Storage charges which will be $300.00 / day since Sept. 13th.

At this point, we have not added on our legal fees but that will be part of the claim which is being prepared tomorrow. (unless we receive a substantial wire).

I'm sorry it's come to this but you must admit we have done everything in our power to be cooperative.

I know you give us a few thousand here and there but it's not helping. It barely covers the storage and our legal fees.

We agreed to work with you in regard to offering us a note to pay this account. We agreed to accept your corporate guarantee but nothing has come through.

We obviously prefer to have this settled. We have been open and flexible and are still willing to be flexible but we need a concrete proposal from you that you are willing and able to stand by. You are a master of delay.

Why did you not take the time to call when you said you would and instead just ignore us for 3 days?

Why did you stop sending wires?

Why should I believe you? accompany your size can do a lot more than what you've done.

I am not calm. I am not accustomed to doing business this way.

The end is here.

I'm sorry Todd, but since we have not heard from you all week, I have no choice but to move this up to the next level.

We have to hand this over to our Attorney for collection.

Our situation has changed and the our Bank will no longer ride this out. I held them off as long as possible but they are now putting pressure on us and will no longer consider this account an asset.

They are really pushing.

I'm sorry it's come to this but you must admit we have done everything in our power to be cooperative.

I know you give us a few thousand here and there but it's not helping. It barely covers the storage and our legal fees.

We agreed to work with you in regard to offering us a note to pay this account. We agreed to accept your corporate guarantee but nothing has come through.

We obviously prefer to have this settled. We have been open and flexible and are still willing to be flexible but we need a concrete proposal from you that you are willing and able to stand by. Unless something 100% concrete is received by Monday, I am giving a free hand to the attorney to do what needs to be done.

Be prepared, this will be an expensive ordeal.

We will not back off.

Hi Willy,

I got your letter from the lawyer.

My lawyer and I met to discuss.

Let's keep the lines with us open.

I will call and talk about the stock plans we have.

Still here my man
